A $10,000 wash goods purchase on sale Monday morning

Right from the great Arnold Wash Fabrics Auction, New York City.

Our eastern representative, J. E. Manix, was there in our interests—saw the golden opportunity—snapped it up.

Quoting from a letter from J. E. Manix in regard to these goods: "Never has there been such a sale of clean, desirable merchandise at so low prices—we bought heavily—savings averaged more than 50c on the dollar—" and so on, quoting the prices of each line purchased for us—this opinion of the shrewd New York experts should go far with Salt Laker—an examination of the display in our entire front windows will convince of the sincerity of the above.

Only high class fabrics were bought—values ranging from 25c to 75c the yard—the kinds are Embroidered tissues, Irish dimities, 4-4 batistes, Printed Silk dots, Pequin Marquiesettes, Marquise silks, silk and cotton fabrics, Soie Imprime, Printed silk mulls, 32-inch madras, Panama suitings, etc., etc.
